

This diagram shows an exploded view of a 10-pin D-sub connector assembly. It includes a female D-sub connector housing with a latch, a 10-pin D-sub plug, and a 10-pin D-sub socket. The plug and socket are shown inserted into the housing, with the plug's pins making contact with the socket's contacts. The housing is shown in a perspective view, highlighting its D-shaped profile and the latch mechanism.
